

ALLOY SILVERSTEIN PRESENTS

SECURITY SYMPOSIUM 2017

REACTING TO THE EQUIFAX DATA BREACH:

How Individuals and Businesses Can Protect Themselves from Fraud and Cyber Threats

FEATURING EXPERT PANELISTS

CPA & BUSINESS PERSPECTIVE

Ren Cicalese III, CPA, MST

Associate Partner, Alloy Silverstein

LEGAL PERSPECTIVE

Rebecca Rakoski, Esq.

Managing Partner, XPAN Law Group

TECHNOLOGY PERSPECTIVE

Anthony Mongeluzo

President, PCS

BANKING PERSPECTIVE

Sharyn Bucci

VP, Small Business Segment Manager, TD Bank

WITH SPECIAL
GUEST:

GOVERNMENT PERSPECTIVE

Adam Karcher

Special Agent Cyber 2
FBI Philadelphia

Inaction now can cost you later. Cyber threats have become an increasingly damaging risk to individuals and businesses. Are you prepared?

Alloy Silverstein invites you to an interactive panel discussion on how individuals and businesses can be proactive in protecting invaluable data in the aftermath of the Equifax Data breach, including security prevention recommendations going forward. A light breakfast will be served.

DATE: Thursday, November 30, 2017

TIME: 8:00–8:30AM

Registration and Networking

8:30–10:30AM

Program and Q&A

PLACE: DoubleTree Suites

515 Fellowship Road

Mt. Laurel, NJ 08054

To register, email
events@alloysilverstein.com
by November 22nd.

